Responsive Reading

1 Corinthians 13:1-5, 7-8, 13

LEAD: Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

CONG: And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

LEAD: And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

CONG: Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

LEAD: Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

CONG: Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

LEAD: Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

ALL: And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but greatest of these is charity.
