Rev. Kevin Hines, Interim Pastor

RESPONSIVE READING

Philippians 2:1-11

LEAD: If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,

CONG: Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

LEAD: Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

CONG: Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

LEAD: Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

CONG: Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

LEAD: But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:

CONG: And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

LEAD: Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:

CONG: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

LEAD: And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

When We Are Lonely

Dr. Charles Stanley, In Touch Ministries

Hebrews 4:14-16

Despite the fact that technology enables us to stay connected with each other, we haven't solved the problem of loneliness. Many people still feel cut off from those around them. The real solution for healing the deep ache of isolation in our heart is an intimate relationship with the heavenly Father.

As He was about to create Adam, God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness" (Gen. 1:26). One point of resemblance to the Lord is our desire and ability to share intimacy with other people. Moreover, we're created to commune with the Father.

Adam and Eve had a close bond with the Lord, who spent time with them in the Garden of Eden. However, the couple's disobedience caused a rift in the relationship. And since God is holy, He can't allow anything unrighteous into His presence. Once sin entered the world through the first couple, every person born would be tainted with it and, consequently, would be separated from God. Yet because of His love, the Lord planned a way to bridge the gap between Himself and mankind.

Reconciliation with the Father means that we are never alone (Deut. 31:6). We may still feel lonely on occasion, but we have a constant companion with whom we can talk. And He will provide comfort to our heart.
