Rev. Kevin Hines, Interim Pastor

RESPONSIVE READING

Psalm 30:1-5, 7-12

LEAD: I WILL extol thee, O LORD; for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.

CONG: O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

LEAD: O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.

CONG: Sing unto the LORD, O ye saints of his, and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

LEAD: For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

CONG: Lord, by thy favour thou hast made my mountain to stand strong: thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled.

LEAD: I cried to thee, O LORD; and unto the LORD I made supplication.

CONG: What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise thee? Shall it declare thy truth?

LEAD: Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me: LORD, be thou my helper.

CONG: Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness;

LEAD: To the end that my glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent. O LORD my God, I will give thanks unto thee forever.

GOD WORKS THROUGH OUR TRIALS

2 CORINTHIANS 12:7-10

Dr. Charles Stanley, In Touch Ministries

The troubles and suffering we experience in life are not random events without purpose. God works through them for our good (Rom. 8:28). We may not like or understand exactly what He's doing but knowing some of His general goals helps us trust Him and cooperate so we can reap the benefits of a season of affliction.

Protection. After Paul fervently prayed that his thorn in the flesh be removed, God revealed to him that it was a protection from pride. Sometimes pain accomplishes what nothing else can.

Reliance. Paul's thorn, which made him weak, also taught him to endure by relying on Christ's grace and strength. Then we are positioned to receive the divine strength He promises to provide.

Divine Perspective. When Paul finally realized what the Lord was trying to accomplish in his life, he viewed his suffering in a totally different way. Paul could actually rejoice because he recognized that Christ's power in him was more important than freedom from pain.

May is Mental Health Awareness Month: We've all been through a lot this year. And one issue that continues to make headlines? Our mental health. Specifically, the effect of COVID-19 and all that comes with it – vaccinations, quarantining, working from home, disrupted schedules, lack of social interaction, and more.

Now is a good time to pause and reflect. May is Mental Health Awareness Month, so we want to make sure we recognize a difficult truth: Nearly one in five Americans lives with a mental health condition, according to the National Institute of Mental Health. That includes any mental, behavioral, or emotional disorder such as:

- Depression - Anxiety - Mood disorders, including bipolar disorder
- Personality disorders - Psychotic disorders, including schizophrenia
- Trauma - Eating disorders - Substance -use disorders

Experts stress that now is the time to focus on healing, reaching out, and connecting in safe ways by acknowledging that it's okay to not be okay.

Sunday School Memory Verse: John 8:32 & 36. KJV “And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.”: John 8:32 & 36. KJV
