Rev. Kevin Hines, Interim Pastor

CONVENANT

LEAD: "And they entered into covenant to seek the Lord God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul." What common experience leads us into spiritual fellowship and covenant relations with God and one another.

CONG: Having been led as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour, and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, we do now, in the presence of God, angels, and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

LEAD: What are some of the privileges and duties in this our own church?

CONG: With this view, we engage, to strive for the advancement of this church, in knowledge, holiness and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrines.

LEAD: What vows do we gladly make as stewards of that which God has entrusted to us?

CONG: To contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel and foster Christian education and missions throughout all nations.

LEAD: For the sake of our own home and loved ones, what tasks do we humbly assume?

CONG: We engage, to maintain family and secret devotions; to religiously educate our children, to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances.

LEAD: For the sake of the unsaved, for whom Christ died; to what manner of life and conversation are we solemnly pledged?

CONG: To walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting, and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale and use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage and to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Saviour.

LEAD: Since one is our Master, even Christ and all we are brethren, by what fraternal ministries are we to strengthen each other and adorn the teachings of our Lord and Saviour?

CONG: We further engage, to watch over one another in brotherly love and watchfulness; giving and receiving admonition with meekness and affection; to remember each other in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rule of our Saviour, to secure it without delay.

LEAD: For the good of our own spiritual development and for the best interest of the Master's Kingdom, what do we promise to do, if we move beyond the reach of this church?

CONG: We moreover, engage, that when we remove from this place, we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other church of this faith, where we can carry out the Spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's word.

ALL: Humbly confessing our past sins, we pray for grace and strength to keep these our Holy Vows, for the sake of JESUS CHRIST, our LORD. Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION

Thought for the Week

If you feel guilty about sins from your past, The Lord is waiting to take that load from you and cast it as far as the east is from the west (Ps.103:12). All you must do is hand over your burden and receive His forgiveness.

Sunday School Memory Verse: Revelation 21:3 NLT "I heard a loud shout from the throne, saying, look, God's home is now among his people! He will live with them, and they will be His people. God himself will be with them": Revelation 21:3 NLT
