The holiday, which occurs on June 19, honors the historic day in 1865 when the last of the enslaved people in the U.S. were granted freedom after Major General Gordon Granger arrived in Galveston, Texas, and announced that the the Civil War was officially over. In the decades since, Juneteenth has become a celebration that's recognized in all 50 states. You'll see that the Juneteenth flag uses the exact same colors as the United States's flag: red, white, and blue. This was intentional and meant to show that the formerly enslaved and their descendants are free Americans, too.

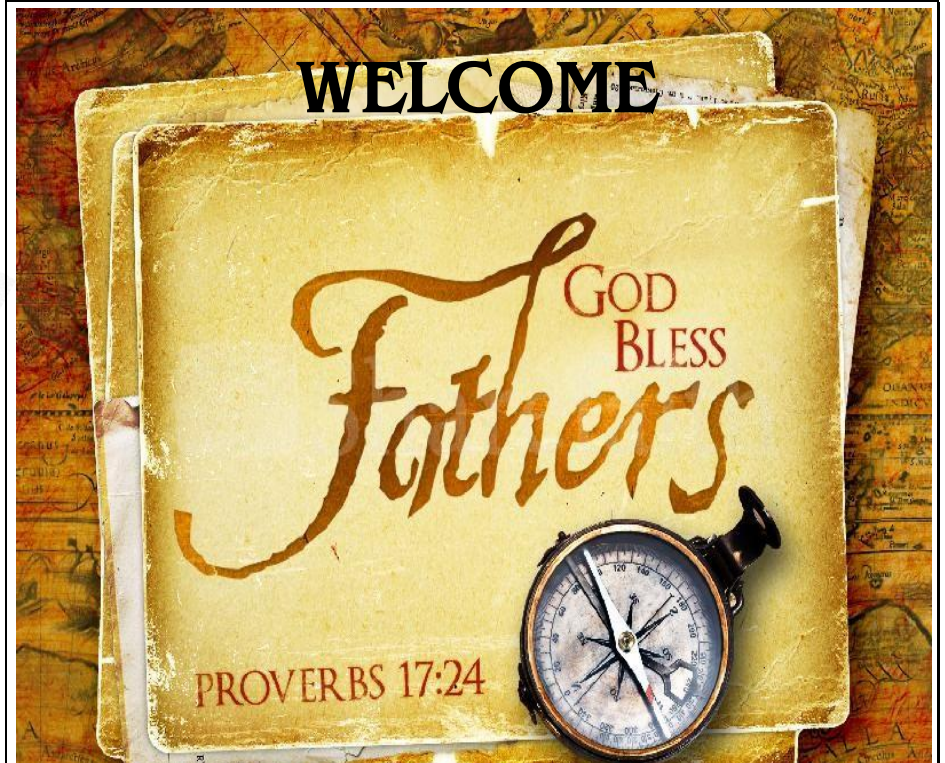

The Juneteenth flag was created in 1997.

RESPONSIVE READING

Ephesians 6:1-4; Deuteronomy 6:4-9

LEAD: Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.
CONG: Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise;
LEAD: That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.
CONG: And ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath, but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
LEAD: Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD:
CONG: And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.
LEAD: And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart:
CONG: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.
LEAD: And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes.
CONG:
 And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates.
